Varsity Grill & Sports Bar Touches Down at El Paso International Airport HMSHost opens fun dining spot for traveling sports fans

BETHESDA, MD – HMSHost, a world leader in travel dining and shopping, continues to delight El Paso International Airport (ELP) travelers with fresh local and international restaurant brands. The company announced today the addition of a Varsity Grill & Sports Bar to the airport's outstanding new food and beverage concessions program.

Expressing her pleasure with the airport's concession program enhancements, Director of Aviation, Monica Lombraña, A.A.E, said, "On behalf of El Paso International Airport, I thank HMSHost for delivering on its promise to 'make the traveler's day better' at ELP."

Varsity Grill is now serving travelers post-security on Concourse A and celebrating local college and university sports teams with a festive atmosphere. Guests can watch their favorite sporting events and news on flat screen TVs while enjoying fresh deli sandwiches and salads, appetizers and soups, along with a cold beer, wine and premium cocktails.

Later this year, 12th Fairway Bar & Grill will join the dining options at ELP. Catering to the golf aficionado, this full service restaurant will offer the sophistication of a traditional golf clubhouse combined with the ambience of an American bar and grill. The menu includes a selection of breakfast, lunch and dinner items including traditional sandwiches, entrées and salads, plus a full bar specializing in unique Dewar's scotch selections.

"We're very pleased that travelers are enjoying the new Varsity Sports Bar & Grill along with the other exceptional local and national dining brands we opened recently at El Paso International Airport," said Stephen Douglas, Vice President, Business Development for HMSHost.
