HMSHost Wins Contract at Denver International Airport for Three New Starbucks® Stores

New locations coming to Concourses A and B and C

DENVER — Global restaurateur HMSHost and D1 Solutions, under a joint venture partnership called Host DSL DEN F&B, LLC, have been awarded a 7-year contract to operate three new Starbucks® stores at Denver International Airport. Denver's Department of Aviation voted recently to make the measure official.

"HMSHost is very excited to expand our operation and relationship with Denver International Airport with the addition of these new Starbucks locations. We thank the airport for this opportunity as well as Keith Montoya of D1 Solutions for their partnership on this endeavour," said HMSHost Vice President of Business Development Stephen Douglas. "Travelers continue to look for Starbucks while on the move and we are eager to expand these renowned offerings and services to the traveling public in all areas of the Denver airport."

Concourses A and C will open their first Starbucks locations while the main area of Concourse B will open a third location as an addition to two existing stores in the regional jet area found at the end of the concourse.

All of HMSHost's operations in Denver International Airport can be viewed on the company's location finder.
